Megabus.com Offers Fares as Low as $1 during the Holiday Season.
Fares as low as $1 with advanced booking on www.megabus.com.

CHICAGO (Sept. 27, 2006) – In an effort to lessen the burden of holiday travel expenses, megabus.com offers low-cost service during the holiday season.

Military service men and women can make purchases for this new bus service online at www.megabus.com.

The booking system for megabus.com makes tickets available from $1 for a limited number of seats. It is recommended that travel be booked one to two months in advance to receive the discounted fares. Prices increase incrementally depending on availability and how far in advance travel is booked. Military personnel booking later will still receive very competitive fares.

Cities served by megabus.com include Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, St. Louis and Toledo.

"We are delighted that we can offer quality low-cost travel to the men and women serving our country," said Dale Moser, chief operating officer and president of Megabus.com. "We hope our economical travel option gives military personnel, who may not have been able to get home for the holidays, a chance to see their loved ones."

The megabus.com Web site provides information on arrival and departure times for all cities served by megabus.com. The Web site also allows passengers to quickly book their travel and purchase tickets from the comfort of their home, office or wireless handheld device. Go to www.megabus.com to find out more information.
